

About our Newsletter

Welcome to the Bannister In Home Care Newsletter for our dedicated Support Workers. Firstly, let me say on behalf of Bannister In Home Care – thank you for being part of our organisation.

We will use this newsletter to keep you informed of important and interesting news and information about working with Bannister In Home Care.

Our intention is to continue to grow to become a leading provider of in home care services – we welcome and encourage you to be part of that success story.

Part of that is gaining your feedback on how we are meeting your needs, how we can improve our existing services and any suggestions that you may have for any aspect of our business.

Industry Update...

The Australian government is committed to creating opportunities for seniors to spend as much time in their own home as possible – this is through Home Care Packages.

Additionally, the Government is committed to maintaining and growing the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) to provide support services to those in need in our community.

Projected home care support worker requirements by 2020 are in excess of 200,000 new jobs. Your future is secure and we would like it to be part of our future.

Training

Bannister In Home Care has established a fully subsidised training program in Certificate III Individual Support – dual qualification Aged Care and Disability (previously Certificate III Aged Care) for our support workers. Blended structure: self-paced online with face to face sessions.

Ann Chang is accepting expressions of interest – give her a call as this is a great opportunity to gain or update your qualification.

We have a new number!! – 02 9052 5634

To contact our friendly service management staff, please make sure you call 02 9052 5634.

The office operates between 9am and 5pm, Monday to Friday. Outside of these hours, someone will return your call as soon as possible.

Feedback - We welcome and encourage your feedback and we guarantee to respond and keep you informed. Confidentiality guaranteed.
